Achievements

“The journey to AWS Advanced Tier has given us the opportunity to work with many AWS customers; thus, launching dozens of opportunities. We’re excited to achieve this milestone and be recognized as a partner who guides customers through their cloud security and compliance challenges,” said Eric Evans, Founder and CTO of HanaByte!

Cybersecurity Awareness

This Month We Celebrated
CYBERSECURITY AWARENESS MONTH

As your best friend in cybersecurity, we have been excited to join the Cybersecurity Awareness Month efforts throughout this month to help educate and raise awareness about the importance of making cybersecurity knowledge and resources more accessible. We shared best practices and provided trusted resources, and we are absolutely thrilled to partner with the Cloud Security Alliance to host a special CCSK exam bundle giveaway in conjunction with our webinar today!

If you're interested in challenging yourself and solidifying your cloud security knowledge, there's still time to enter! Just head over to our pinned post on LinkedIn for a chance to win the CCSK exam bundle.

We're proud to celebrate Cybersecurity Awareness Month by spotlighting an organization committed to security and offering valuable, free resources to support your learning journey!

Event Attendance

AWS DMV Community Day

“This is a Gated Community! Please Get Off the Property”

Arlington, Virginia

10.18.24

Simon Abisoye, Staff Security Consultant, spoke at Amazon HQ2 for AWS DMV Community Day on Oct 18th. He shared an intriguing story about how a web vulnerability led to a squatter situation and the vital role of Web Application Firewalls (WAFs) in safeguarding web apps.

SANS CloudSecNext Summit & Training

“From AFT to ATO, AWS Native FedRAMP Through Terraform”

Denver, Colorado

9.30.24

Michael Greenlaw, Co-Founder and Principal Security Consultant, spoke at the SANS CloudSecNext Summit & Training about simplifying and automating the often tedious process of achieving a FedRAMP ATO in the AWS cloud from the ground up.
